Für die Taktikfüchse hier ein ausführlicher Vorbericht aufs Montagspiel (die Analyse geht schon ziemlich ins Detail).

Zusammengefasste Schlussfolgerung:

Zitat

Win on early downs, keep Seattle out of the red zone, sack Wilson three or more times, and win the game. The Seahawks have a good offense; there is no denying that. The 49ers have a great defense. As always, it's a matchup game. Seattle thrives on big plays, which is something San Francisco doesn't allow. The defensive line should have its way up front. Wrapping up Carson and Wilson will be a must. If they do that, the home team should not only win but cover the six points. They're the better team.
